SAYS BRITAIN SAVED RIGHTS OF NEUTRALS

Sir George E. Foster Tells Canadians Mother Country Has Been Fair.

Toronto, Nov. 7.-Great Britain's 'carnest attention and great fairness" have been responsible for the preservation of the rights of neutral countries during the present war, according to Sir George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, who addressed a luncheon of the Canadian Club here. Sir George spoke of the "results and probable effects" of the economic conference in Paris.

The conclusions reached at the Paris onference were divided, he said, into three categories. The first related to the action of the Entente Allies during their war, in prohibiting all trade exchanges and business transactions between any of the Entente nations and the enemies. The great problem that had to be faced here, he added, was determining how much trade should be enjoyed by neutral countries like Norway, Sweden, Den-mark, Holland and Switzerland, which were "like sponges surrounding the Cen-tral Powers of Europe."

The second conclusion, Sir George as-serted, referred to the course of action to be taken by the Entente Allied countries in the reconstruction period follow-ing the war. This includes, he said, provision against the "dumping of prodicts" from enemy countries during the seriod of reconstruction.

The first call for materials should be made by the Entente Allies, Sir George declared, upon the supplies of the En-tente allied nations themselves, and not mon their enemies or neutrals.

The third conclusion, the Minister said, concerned the permanent policy between the nations at present allied against Germany. It was agreed, Sir George added that all their natural resources and indusries should be developed by cooperation and mutual good will and self help, so as to make the Entente nations entirely independent of the Central Powers.

Whether it shall be by Governments restrictive tariffs up to the point of belency, it was agreed that such a poly should be adopted," he said in cor clusion. "There shall be uniform, con-stant and honorable use of one, or all, or any, of these different means, as may be

Boston, Nov. 7 - The State of Illinois was granted permission to-day to in-crease the danuges asked in a suit against the estate of Samuel Raymond of loston from $50,000 to $1,000,000. The use is pending in the Superior Court Raymond, who was treasurer of Cook county from 1898 to 1902, was allowed to retain in addition to his salary 2 per cent, of all inheritance taxes collected. The law under which this was done was The law under which has was done was subsequently declared unconstitutional. As a result the State claims that all amounts received by Raymond under that law should be refunded. The increase in the damages is understood to have been made to cover the amount of Raymond's bond.
